Glance Technologies Releases Android Version of Glance Pay

September 29, 2016 – Vancouver, B.C. – Glance Technologies Inc. (CSE:GET/FKT:GJT) is pleased to announce that Glance Pay is now available to Android users.

Glance Pay, Glance's mobile restaurant payment application, has experienced rapid growth since its iOS release in August 2016. Now Glance is excited to bring its effortless payment experience to Android users.

Users can now download and use Glance Pay at participating restaurants on Android phones, including the Samsung Galaxy, OnePlus3 and Nexus 6P. Glance Pay is available for free download in Google Play's Android Store as well as in Apple's App Store.

Glance is very pleased with the adoption rate of Glance Pay since the app first launched, and until now transactions through Glance Pay have been completed solely by iPhone users. With the launch of the Android version of Glance Pay, the company anticipates Glance Pay's adoption rate will increase significantly.

"Our goal is to reach a large audience both in Vancouver initially and then in other cities around the world, in order to provide a lightning quick and easy payment solution for all restaurant patrons," states Desmond Griffin, CEO and co-founder of Glance.

With the release of the Android version of Glance Pay, Glance is eager to expand its reach in the mobile payments market which was estimated to be worth approximately $431 Billion USD in 2015, according to Statista. 85% of millennials have a smartphone, and together, Android and iOS hold a 96.7% market share globally.¹ Smartphone sales continue to grow – by 38.7% in 2015 – and in 2015, 69% of users performed at least one mobile banking activity.²

About Glance Technologies Inc.
